

TOWN OF PLAINVILLE
PROCEEDINGS OF THE SPECIAL TOWN MEETING – SEPTEMBER 10, 2025

The Special Town Meeting was held at the Beatrice H. Wood Elementary School, 72 Messenger Street on Wednesday, September 10, 2025. The Town Clerk swore in Ellen Robertson, Nicholas Sammarco, Christopher Brenneis, and Steven Albert as vote counters for the evening.

Town Moderator, Luke Travis, called the meeting to order at 7:20 PM. He then read the opening of the warrant. The Town Clerk confirmed that the warrant was properly posted, and a quorum was present. A total of 190 voters were checked in for the meeting.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by the Moderator, followed by a moment of silence for service members and first responders.

Introductions were made of the Town Clerk, Finance Committee, Select Board, Town Administrator, Town Counsel, Finance Director, Treasurer/Collector and State Representative Marcus Vaughn.

The Moderator declared the meets and bounds of the hall. He also gave the following information and instructions:

- All voters should have checked in and received a voter's card.
- All visitors/non-voters should be wearing an orange sticker and be seated along the side.
- The location of emergency exits and the restrooms.
- Please silence all cell phones.
